

Gilles Snowcat

presents:

Don't Leave Your Mistakes Unattended

THE STORY

The story begins, as all great mistakes do, somewhere in the casino bar, probably in Monaco. Year unknown. The British spy is there, working on his 9th vodka martini (shaken, not stirred). The American blue-eyed crooner lingers by the piano, eyeing the Jack Daniel's with an envious yet blasé look. Both unashamedly peeking at the ladies with risqué dress and glasses of Champagne on the hand. Seduction oozes from every inch of the place. A few meters from them, a man and a woman are doing their best at playing the game, tipsy love at first sight.

Man: Let me buy you a drink. What cocktail would make you feel happy?

Lady: Pandan Smash Amaretto. Stirred, not shaken.

Man: On the rocks?

Lady: Yes, with tiny little ice cubes. Cheers!

Man: To us!

Lady: Hey, who's that singer tonight?

Man: Oh, an old regular, Gilles Snowcat.

Lady: How do you call his music?

Man: It's quite swaying, I once asked him to define it.

Lady: What did he say then?

Man: He took a sip of brandy and laughed, saying it was just love songs after dark.

Lady: Oh that's right. His voice sounds like marzipan.

Man: Marzipan?!

Lady: Marzipan. And trouble. Just what I love. Oh, another Pandan Smash Amaretto for me, please!

Bartender: It's on the house.

Man, thinking: Thankfully! This drink here costs more than my last tank of gas...

THE VIBE

Don't search any further, this is an album for:

- 1- Women (ladies) who love marzipan and trouble;
- 2- Men who love women who love marzipan and trouble;
- 3- Journalists who love to hate music for women who love marzipan (and trouble).

THE MUSIC NOW

A SIDE

- 01 Something New In Waterloo
- 02 Monaco 1972
- 03 Tiny Little Ice Cubes – duet with Adriana Dath
- 04 (Theme From) Shopping Street – The Pyjama Scene

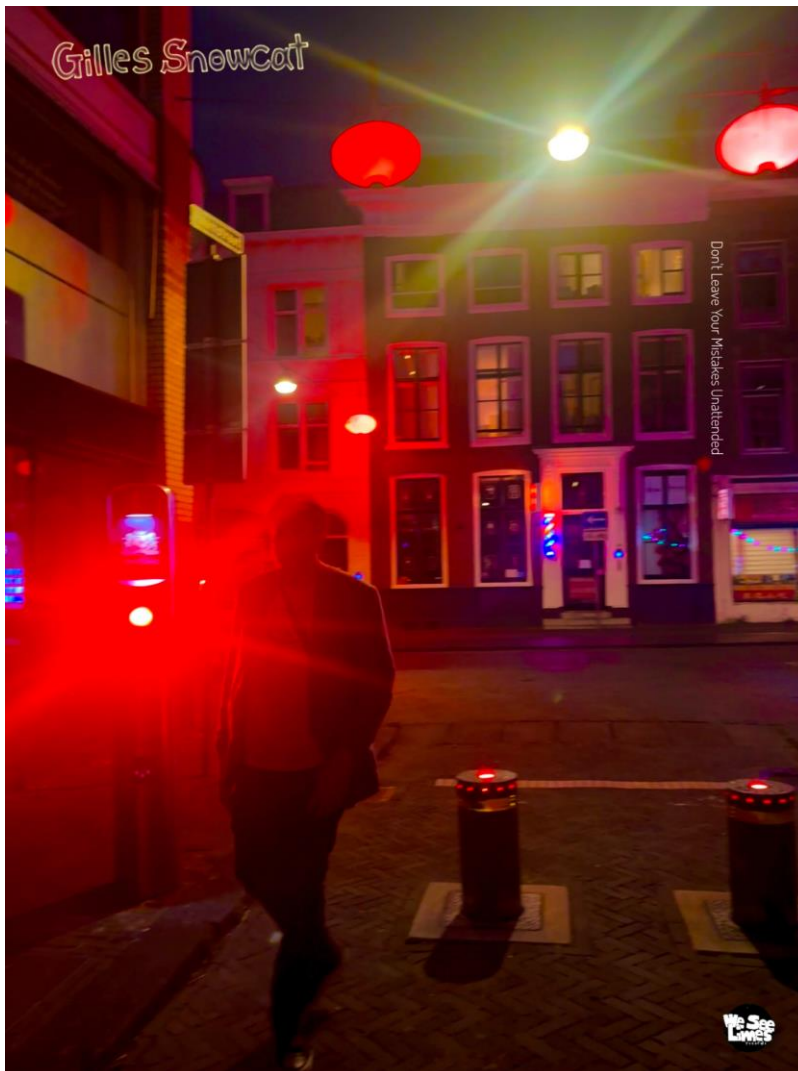

B SIDE

- 05 Pandan Smash Amaretto – duet with Ana Cozman
- 06 At The Marzipan Bar
- 07 Almond Squash (The Marzipan Theme)
- 08 Coast Avenue Drive (Taking Action In Haute Couture)

Don't Leave Your Mistakes Unattended

THE CULPRIT →

THE TECHNICALITIES

Album: Don't Leave Your Mistakes Unattended

Label: We See Limes

Catalog number: WSL-11092025

Released on: September 11th, 2025

Artist: Gilles Snowcat

For fans of: Gilles Snowcat (stupid question, glad you asked)

Where is it? <https://gillessnowcat.hearnow.com/dont-leave-your-mistakes-unattended/>

Don't Leave Your Mistakes Unattended

THE CATS AROUND THE CAT (by pyramidal order)

Polyphonic synthesizer and all sort of keyboards: yours truly

Lead vocals: Adriana Dath, Ana Cozman, yours truly

Drums: Nick Adams, Myles Simpson, Dennis Snyder

Guitars: Patrick Deltenre, Ian Rigillo, Nico Leroy

Bass guitar: Duke Quarcoo, Nico Leroy

Harmony vocals: hetpampa, Lew Ellyn

Harmonica : Patrick Deltenre

Saxophone: Vincent Penasse

Percussion: Octave Komlan

Melodica : Keith Walsh

Moog bass: Nico Leroy

Clarinet: Lucy Tasker

Ti99/4A: yours truly

Piano: Nico Leroy

With special contributions from: Jing Chen, Miwako Yokosawa, Betoneko, Sébastien Bournier, JP Benadjér, Alexis Bollard, St December, Simon Napier-Bell, Bill Bayer, Axel Dumont, Catherine D'Hondt, Augusto Gonçalves, Renato Ronchetti. And Agak-agak.

