Unboxed!

When it takes 2 years and a half to complete an album, it is either because the musicians are obsessively perfectionists, or because the lead singer is more or less addicted to cocktails and a lazy lifestyle.

Being myself the lead singer, I have to admit that the second hypothesis is the closest to what actually happened.

I can't deny that making this album was a heavy piece of fun. If I was humble, I'd say that I hope that you'll enjoy it as much as I enjoyed recording it and that usual blah blah bullshit.

But I'm not that modest and I perfectly know you will actually enjoy this record. Maybe not at first. You may even wonder what the fuck it is, but you're so curious so you'll come back to it and gradually you'll start to enjoy it. You won't admit it, of course, and it will become your guilty pleasure, like a secret lover or a chocolate cake that you eat at midnight when your best half is sleeping.

And in a few years from now, when it's a cult album, you'll tell the whole world you loved this album from the start. You naughty brat...

offering

Every now and then, someone wants to donate money to keep my music mission alive and going. That's great. After all, who doesn't like money? It fills the tank of my Diesel limousine, allows me to drink overpriced cocktails at a trendy joint on a sunny afternoon and some other (more or less) material pleasures of life.

But a donation is a one-shot. Quickly spent.

Do you really want to help me print my seal on the universe? Simply buy my love songs after dark then! Play them on streaming platforms, include them to your playlists and share them, advertise for them and use them. And for fuck's sake, enjoy them.

Music is a circuit where it needs to circulate, and you have the power to do so.

But most importantly, when you have money to donate, give it to an animal shelter that you know and that needs help. Believe me, they all need it. Our animal friends will benefit from your gift better than I ever will.

And your gesture will keep me happy.

Gratitude

A good thanks section takes two pages that virtually no one reads, except for those who expect to be there.... Then they call me at 3 am to complain they didn't find their name and ask me why I forgot, and it's hard for me to say that I didn't forget, it's just that I don't know why I should have mentioned them, and blahblah.

So if you want a thanks section anyway, I suggest you get your hands on my previous records, you combine all the thanks pages into one, since all names there are still valid now (minus one or two that I included due to the fact that I was probably drunk). Plus, these records feature a bunch of cool music, so it's all benefit for you. However, I need to add a few people who just came to help recently:

思草ちゃん - Shigusa Fujikura for her magic drum;
日向逸夫先生 - Pr Itsuo Hyûga for the Oh!, the castle and the faces at the bar;
Jo Rolling (RIP) and Snoopy (RIP) for the warmth;
Kate Lucid for staying cold;
Véro L. who waited so long that she may have forgotten about all that stuff;
Sophie R. for guiding me to the rhythms;
Lorenzo Morgan for almost being JLT;
Colin Larcombe for checking the British spirit;
Chris Malpitan for not trying to be Chris Malpitan;
Juliett Novak for the contacts & hunger;
Ousmane, Dan, Donald & Claude for the perspective;
Zoé Jadoul & Thierry Lacasse for making a royalties fight a good one;
Tâmu, Yuki Hao, Virginie Lobet and Jôn Ardox for pushing Nekomawa
Massage & Hypnosis;

Marta de Lluvia for sending the limoncello in New Zealand;
Ralf O. for knowing how deep is the purple Atlantic;
Also Antonella Corrias and 千恵さん and Todd and Jenna and Fleur and Anna and Wiam and Tony Van Langenhove and La Pause Clope.

And the musicians, designers, composers, liquor dealers and sorcerers for giving their time, blood, sweat and talent without counting for the sake of unboxing some magic.

And you who will call me at 3 a.m to ask me why you didn't find your name here... And Don W., Jimmy B., Charley D., Ian M., Phil S., Steven P. (RIP), Dave B. for more than 40 years of incredible Australian lullabies.

And those recurring ghosts and to whoever I sold my soul to. I don't regret a single day.
